It sure is nice of people to take time to tell us they appreciate us! We all love a pat on the back, and sometimes it even makes our day! Thanks, ladies.

I received my goodie package today. it was so quick! Thank you! Also, there have been times when fabric ordered via Internet has not been exact. I loved each and every one...they are wonderful! Again, thanks for making my day! I certainly will order again.

My order was placed August 12 and it arrived three days later. What great service as well as fair shipping rates!! And the Mary Englebreit pin cushions are just as cute "in person" as on your web site. I am/will continue to be a repeat customer!

You know, you guys are very nice. You don't charge that huge shipping cost. You charge only what is needed to ship. Thank you for that. You're the first place I look when I'm looking for some fabric. Thanks!

I just want to say I received my order yesterday I can't believe how fast you got it to me, and the discount on shipping cost. You will be the first place I check for future purchases. Thank you so much I appreciate excellent service.

In this environment of a bad economy, customer service is increasingly important to me. I was very impressed with the speed of my delivery and the quality of the packaging. I am a very satisfied customer!

Wow . . Great service. I received my fabric today . . . and you really did reduce the shipping cost to a reasonable amount. I'm a fan and will continue to order from you. Thank you so much!

Thanks so much, ladies. It's easy for us to tell people we're working hard to make you happy, but it's better to have you say it!
